

“Agriculture is a BIG word!”
LESSON PLAN THREE

Accompanying Songs from CD: “Milk (Yeah, I Like Milk) Rap”

Activity: Designing music shakers

Skills: Listening, designing, painting

Grade Level: Head Start through 3rd grade

Objectives: Creating music from food and containers

Time

Required: One hour one day, one the next

Group size: Classroom

Materials

Needed: Little chocolate milk plastic jugs, wax crayon, seeds and beans, duct tape, paint

Procedure: Color jugs with white wax crayon. Paint over entire jug for crayon drawing to be exposed. Let dry overnight. Fill jugs partially with seeds and beans of any combination. Seal with duct tape. Shake it to produce sound.

Evaluation: Have children play their instruments along with the music and celebrate their creation.

This lesson plan is part of the “Agriculture is a BIG word!” music, lyrics and lesson plan package.
